Payment Policy

Payment must be received in full prior to August 1, 2007 in order for the sponsor to be included in printed materials and to claim exhibit space; however, sponsors remitting payment after August 1, 2007 will still receive recognition at the conference. Failure to pay prior to the conference does not alleviate the sponsor from the obligation to pay the full amount of the sponsorship due to GLOBAL 2007.

Cancellation Policy

Once the contract agreement is signed, if you or your company elects to cancel its participation at this event, GLOBAL 2007 needs to receive notification in writing. If notification is received prior to the printing of the conference publications, the sponsor will receive a 50 percent refund. If notification is received after the conference publications have been produced, the sponsor is responsible for 100 percent of the sponsorship fee as indicated in this agreement.
